Vikki Kidwell- Nothing to report.

Bill Rogers- There is a mean dog in our neighborhood, and I have spoke with the Clerk in regard to this dog. The clerk advised she has turned the information into the Chief of police to have the matter handled.

Jim Bosch- Nothing to report.

5. Citizen input:

Lando Dillen- I have a ditch that runs through my yard and would like to retrench it. Travis advised he could put the banks back in but can not change the flow of the water with out a permit from DNR.

Ronna Moore- Completed two road signs and would like more to do. Travis advised he will get a couple more down to her next week. She also thanked Mayor Harmer for mowing.

James Snook- Would like to sponsor fireworks show on the Saturday of Pioneer days. The company carries a two-million-dollar insurance policy and pioneer days said the best time for the display would be around 9. The board advised they would need to get with the fire department since they will have to be on standby as the display is being shot off and the city will research the ordinance to see if a permit is required. The clerk will put this on the August agenda.

7. New Business

Flagpole at City Hall

The clerk advised the cost for a flagpole would be around 2,000.00 which was not budgeted in for the year. The board advised to budget it in and split the cost with the water fund and the general fund. The board will make the decision in December.

Milage or truck for after hour calls.

The board held a brief discussion in the matter. Mayor Harmer stated with the employee manual already giving a minimum of 2 hours call back time regardless if the problem took 5 minutes or 2 hours he is still getting paid the time and half so will not be providing the payout in milage.

The city truck would need to stay local incase there is an issue that Steve would need to deal with if Travis was unable to make it back to town.

8. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn meeting.
